

Comparing Adjectives

Name: _____

Select the correct adjective to complete each sentence.

Shelly is _____ than Betty. (tall, taller, tallest)

My car is more _____ than yours. (expensiver, expensive)

He is _____ than his brother. (old, older, oldest)

Davor is _____ than Michael. (happy, happier, happiest)

Today is _____ than last Thursday. (cool, cooler, coldest)

I am more _____ in science than music. (interest, interested)

The man on the right is _____ than the man on the left. (short, shorter)

That diamond is _____ than mine. (big, bigger, biggest)

Science is more _____ than English. (difficult, difficulter)

Jill's hair is _____ than Susan's hair. (dark, darker, darkest)

That pie is more _____ than the first one we had. (delicious, deliciouser)

It is _____ today than it was last Saturday. (sun, sunnier, suniest)

Marianne's dress is more _____ than Sue's dress. (yellow, yellower)

Circle the comparative form of the adjective.

famous more famous most famous longer longer longest

quick quickest quicker

immense more immense most immense smartest smart smarter

perfect more perfect most perfect

