

Imaginative Writing

"We've found life on another planet!"

Study*ladder*

We've found life on another planet!

Questions to think about

What an amazing headline for a newspaper report! Imagine reporting on the greatest discovery of our lifetime.

Where will the planet be located and who will be responsible for having found it?

What kind of living beings will inhabit the planet? What will they be like?

What will the discovery mean for people on Earth?

What will you tell your audience about the discovery?
