

Change the indirect speech into direct speech.

He said he was going to the zoo this afternoon.

He said it was very cold this morning.

Joe asked whether he would be allowed to go.

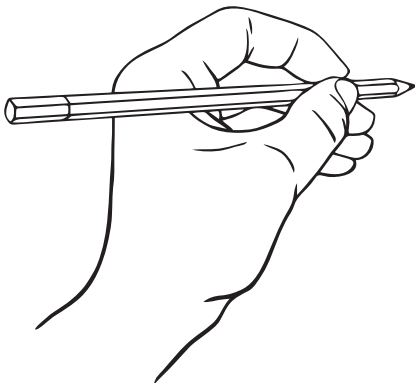

She said her name was Petra.

Cindy said next week's lesson will be on Maths.

He said he might go to the movies this afternoon.

Sandra told me she was upset.

He told me that he lived in Hexam.

She said she taught Maths using her computer.

He asked what we should learn today.
