

'Exploring our Earth'

Match the 'exploring' words to the jumbled words.

Antarctica
ecologist
issues
tourism
researching
geologist
explorer
facilities
implications
future

gnihcraeser
tsigooleg
reorlpxe
acitcratna
tsigoolce
ssseui
msiruot
erutuf
snoitacilpmi
seitilcaf

Circle whether 'was' or 'were' should be used.

I was / were going to Antarctica this summer.

I didn't buy that jacket because it was / were too expensive.

We was / were watching a movie on television about explorers.

Was / Were you a geologist when you went exploring?

Was / Were you happy to see him?

Match the role of the scientist with their field of study.

biologist geologist chemist astronomer zoologist botanist

A scientist who studies the stars , planets and other objects in outer space. _____

A scientist who studies animals and their behaviour. _____

A scientist who studies the life and structure of plants and animals. _____

A scientist who studies plants. _____

A scientist who studies the earth, including rocks and soil. _____

A scientist who studies the structure of substances and how they react when combined. _____