

What Are You Wearing?

Colours

We often say what colour our clothes are when we are asked to describe them.

Our descriptions are better if we say whether a colour is light or dark.

I am wearing a light green shirt.

Colours

When white gets darker it becomes grey.

When black becomes lighter it becomes grey.

We never say light or dark black!

We never say light or dark white!

We can say light grey and dark grey.
