

*Look around your classroom or your home.
Write a list of objects that produce light.*

Draw and label the three objects that produce the most light in your home.

A large, empty rounded square box intended for drawing one of the three light-producing objects from home.A large, empty rounded square box intended for drawing one of the three light-producing objects from home.A large, empty rounded square box intended for drawing one of the three light-producing objects from home.A small, empty rounded rectangular box intended for labeling the first drawing.A small, empty rounded rectangular box intended for labeling the second drawing.A small, empty rounded rectangular box intended for labeling the third drawing.

What objects produce light in your local streets?

