

Polar Bears

Polar Bear Facts Match the headings to the facts:

A Classification
B Appearance
C Diet
D Reproduction and Growth
E Life Expectancy
F Habits
G Scientific Facts

- In the wild polar bears live about 25 years.
- Polar bears have been known to swim 160 km.
- Polar bears are the world's largest land predators.
- A polar bear's fur is not white. Each hair is a clear hollow tube that reflects light, making it look white.
- Male polar bears may grow over 3m tall and weigh over 600kg.
- A polar bear's skin is actually black.
- Polar bears do not drink water. They get all the liquids they need from the animals they eat.

Adjectives

Underline the noun and choose the correct adjective:

- Polar bears have (thin/thick) fur.
- Polar bears have (black/white) skin.
- Polar bears have furry feet to protect them from the (cold/warm) ice.
- Polar bears have (small/large) feet to help them swim.
- Polar bears have (long/short) tails.
- Polar bears have (small/large) heads compared to their body size.

Adjectives are words that add information about a noun or pronoun.

Number Crunchers

Sally the scientist spent three months looking for polar bears. Here are the numbers of bears she recorded for each month.

- 1 What was the total number of bears Sally counted (including cubs) for each month?
- 2 How many more females did Sally count than males over the three months?

1st Month	2nd Month	3rd Month
7 females, (5 of the females each had two cubs) and 3 males.	9 females, (4 of the females each had two cubs) and 6 males.	4 females, (2 of the females each had two cubs) and 6 males.

True or False?

- Polar bears live in the Arctic. T/F
- They mainly eat penguins. T/F
- Polar bears are very good at swimming. T/F
- They are on the list of threatened species. T/F
- Polar bears live together in large groups. T/F
- They have a thick coat of insulated fur. T/F

Sense of Smell

Polar bears have a keen sense of smell. They can smell dead whales and seals from 30 km away. Blindfold several friends or family members. Place several different foods, fruits etc, under their nose. How many can they correctly identify?

For more fun and revision you can play games online and earn rewards using the Studyladder website:

