

Retain silent "e" when adding "ly"

Adding the suffix "ly" to a base word can turn it into an adverb. These words typically describe how, in what way, when, where, or to what extent an action is done.

When the base word ends in a silent "e", retain the "e" before adding "ly".

example:

accurate + ly = accurately

She answered the question accurately.

Write the "ly" adverbs that can be made from these base words:

active _____	close _____	alternate _____
time _____	rare _____	defensive _____
brave _____	live _____	extreme _____
safe _____	creative _____	fortunate _____
polite _____	entire _____	effective _____

Write the following words in alphabetical order and write the number of syllables in each word:

separately, completely, definitely, politely, extremely, immediately.

1) _____ () 2) _____ () 3) _____ ()

4) _____ () 5) _____ () 6) _____ ()

Write the missing "ly" words and circle the verbs they add to:

I am _____ coming to your party.

We are driving _____ .

I was _____ satisfied with my meal.

Please call me _____ !

She is _____ shy.

She answered his question _____ .

Write the opposite of:

accurately _____

timely _____

fortunately _____

effectively _____

politely _____

safely _____