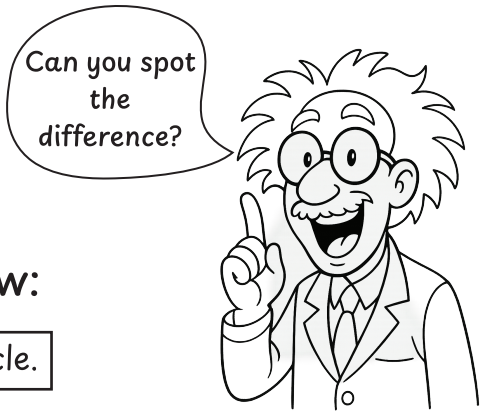
Present Tense

Name:

1 Simple present tense is used to show:

-habit or routine — I wake up at six o'clock every morning.

-statements of facts — Water boils at 100 degrees Celsius.



2 Present continuous tense is used to show:

-things that are happening now. — He is fixing his broken bicycle.

Changing Verb Forms:

present tense: be

I am you ___ he __

she __ we ___ they ___ present tense: have

I ____ you ____ he ___

she ___ we ____ they ____

present tense: do

I __ you __ he ____

she ____ we __ they __

(Write SP for simple present and PC for present continuous)

	The bus leaves at half past eight.
	I am listening to music through my headphones.
	I am drinking a glass of water.
	The shop sells fresh bread every morning.
	He is helping his dad wash the car.
	She is swimming in the ocean.
	They are climbing on the playground equipment.
	The library closes at 5 o'clock on Tuesdays.
	I am wearing my new shoes today.
	We are eating dinner together.

Change simple present (SP) into present continuous (PC) tense. Rewrite the sentences.

SP: She reads a chapter every night before bed. PC: She is reading a chapter of her book.

SP: My mother cooks dinner for the family. PC: _____

SP: The children sing loudly in the choir. PC: _____

SP: Birds build nests in the trees. PC: _____

SP: Dogs like to chase their tails. PC: _____

Write 2 sentences using a negative in simple present (SP) tense.(I do not , She does not etc.)

_____

_____

COPYRIGHT STUDYLADDER